THE DORLAND FAMILY IN AMERICA.

Jan Gerretse Dorland came from Holland in 1652, possibly unmarried. He was a Commissioner from 1687 to 1701, and possibly later. He was elder in the church in 1711.

He married, first, ----- (name unknown, who died between 1663 and 1666.

He married, second, about 1667, Anna, daughter of Rem Jansen Vanderbeek and Jannetje Rapalie.

Children by first wife were:

1. Gerret Gerretse.
2. Elias (see below).
3. Christina (tyntje).
4. Gertrude (Gertje).

Note: one child by first wife was Samuel, which I omitted intentionally.

Children by second wife were:

5. Rem.
6. Mary (Marietje).
7. Anna (Annetje).
8. Elsie (Elsje).
9. John (Jan).

Elias Dorland (see above), born about 1656; died in 1672. He was a miller and farmer of considerable substance in Hempstead Town, Queen's County, Long Island. His will was dated 30 Oct., 1671.

He married, about 1680, Mrs. Miriam Williams, widow, born about 1647, daughter of Henry and Anne Pearsall. She had married, first, before 1667, John Williams, a Quaker, by whom she had a son, Thomas Williams.

His children were:

1. Elias.
2. John (see below).

John Dorland, born 9 Feb., 1686, in Hempstead; and died 31 March, 1780. He was a farmer and stock raiser, and resided in Hempstead. He was vestryman and warden of St. George's Church, Hempstead from 1736 to 1743, inclusive. He died by drowning in the Hudson River by breaking through the ice. His will, dated 16 June, 1778, was probated 5 June, 1781.

He married, in 1715, Mary Dedell, who was born 21 June, 1699, and died 17 May, 1749.

Their children were:

1. Miriam.
2. Anna.
3. John, Junior.
4. Samuel (see below).
5. Joseph.
6. Mary.
7. Elias.

Samuel Dorland (see above), born 21 Feb., 1721; died 7 Nov., 1809. He was born on Long Island, where he joined the Society of Friends, and removed to Dutchess County, New York, in 1753. He followed mercantile pursuits on Long Island and farming in Dutchess County.

He married, 16 Dec., 1743, Anna Esnard, who was born 18 Feb., 1726, and died 21 July, 1801.

Their children were:

1. Elizabeth, born 18 Apr., 1745; died 14 July, 1819; married, in 1765, Andrew Moore.
2. Gilbert, born 10 March, 1747, in Hempstead; died 26 Oct., 1774; married, in 1770, Lydia Ricketson.

3. John, born 19 Feb., 1749, in Wapstead; died 5 June, 1833, in Adolphustown, Ontario. Married, first, Elizabeth Ricketson, and second, Sarah Smith.
4. Mary, born 29. Jan., 1752.
5. Noah.
6. Philip (see below).
7. Samuel, Junior, born 6 July, 1757.
8. Thomas, born 17 April, 1759, at Beckman, N. Y.
9. Letty.
10. Anna.
11. Miriam, born 22 Jan., 1767.

Philip Dorland (see above), born 9 Sept., 1755, at Beckman, N. Y.; died 18 Dec., 1814, near Wellington, Prince Edward County, Ont. He was a farmer in Beckman when the American Revolution began. He joined the British Forces, and was thrown out of the Society of Friends for doing so. He came to Canada in 1763, and settled in Adolphustown Township in the following year. A few years later he settled near Wellington, Prince Edward County, where he died. He was elected, from the old Midland District, to the first Parliament of Upper Canada, 21 Aug., 1792, but, being a Quaker, he declined to take the oath, and his seat was declared vacant. It was in his house that the first meeting of the Society of Friends was held in the Bay of Quinte District. He married, first Elizabeth Bodell, who died 25 Nov., 1801. He married, second, 22 Jan., 1808, at Elizabeth, N. J., Lydia Shotwell. His children, apparently all by first wife, were:

1. Philip, Junior.
2. Betsey.
3. Arnoldi.
4. Anna.
5. Daniel.
6. Catharine (see below).
7. Margaret.

Catharine Dorland, born in 1787-8; married, 9 Nov., 1809, Benjamin Booth; she died 29 April, 1838, and lies buried in Ernesttown Cemetery.

Records of Adolphustown Town Meetings.

Personal Notes.

The Dorlands.

The Dorlands.-- Philip Dorland, clerk of the first town meeting, was ~~one~~ one of the pioneers who landed in 1784, at Adolphustown, and was one of the commissioners for supplying the inhabitants with the food furnished by the British Government. He located on a farm on the Bay of Quinte a mile or two west of where the village of Adolphustown now stands. Later on he moved to Wellington, Prince Edward Co., where he died. He was born at Beekman, N. Y., in 1755, and at Wellington in 1814. There are a large number of descendants in Prince Edward and elsewhere. He was elected as member of Legislature for Lennox and Prince Edward, to the first Upper Canada Parliament in 1792; being a Quaker he would not take an oath of any kind, such as was required then. His seat was declared vacant and Major Vanalstine elected in his stead. His property in New York State was confiscated because of his loyalty to the British Crown. He was a farmer. The first Quaker Society formed in Upper Canada was organized at his house in Adolphustown in 1798, a committee of the New York yearly meeting and Nine Partners (N. Y.) quarterly being present for that purpose. Thomas Dorland, whose name appears in some capacity in nearly every yearly town meeting for years, Dutchess Co., N. Y., in 1759 and appears to have taken an active part in the British Ranks, came to Upper Canada with Philip. in 1784, settled in Adolphustown, on a farm nearly opposite Glenora, on the Bay Shore, where he lived and died in 1832. He was for years a captain of the Lennox Battalion of Militia, and took an active part near Kingston during the war of 1812-14. He was elected to Parliament at an early time, and the original copy of the Upper Canada statutes he had, printed in 1802, is still kept by his descendants. He was a Justice of Peace, and held Magistrate's Court at an early time in Adolphustown. He was one of the few pioneers who brought negro slaves with him, some of whom were in the family as late as 1818, if not later. It is said he brought twenty. It is a tradition that some of his slaves refused to reveal his hiding place during the closing times of the Rebellion even when threatened with hanging. Col. Samuel Dorland was a son of his, and was colonel of the Lennox Regiment of Militia till the time of his death in the fifties. He too took an active part in the war of 1812-14, having charge ~~ix~~ of a company near Kingston. Samuel thought he was the first white male child born in the township. Major Peter Dorland was another son. Both lived and died in the township. Capt. Thos. Dorland was a Quaker, but joined the Church of England later in life, about 1826. There are a large number of descendants yet in the county. A great-grandson, ~~EAL~~ Redford Dorland, is now township clerk ~~ix~~ (1899) and has been for years. A grandson, the late John P. Dorland, was Reeve for years. Two others of the grandsons were medical doctors at Belleville (Drs. Enoch G. and Peter V.). Paul Trumpour Dorland, the last of the town clerks in the old township record, was a son of Thomas I. Dorland and a grandson of John Dorland, the pioneer settler. His mother was a daughter of Joseph Trumpour, and his first wife a granddaughter of Thomas Dorland, a daughter of Peter V. Dorland.

Handwritten header or title at the top of the page, possibly including a date or reference number.

Main body of handwritten text, consisting of several paragraphs. The script is cursive and somewhat faded, making it difficult to read. The text appears to be a formal letter or a detailed report.

Handwritten signature or closing at the bottom of the page, possibly followed by a date or location.
